

Correspondence

News of the County as Told by
Our Special Correspondents

Dawson.

Bess Graham is visiting friends in Salem this week.

Mabel Estes visited her sister, Mrs. Malone in Table Rock over Sunday.

Miss Dillow has returned from Peru where she has been attending school.

Mrs. Enoch, Julia Dempsey and Minnie Murphy were down from Humboldt Sunday.

Lee Bradley has moved out to Miles ranch where he will work during the summer.

J. W. Bittner returned to St. Louis Sunday, after a few weeks visit with his mother.

Chas. Maynard and wife are happy over the arrival of a baby girl at their home last week.

J. H. Chittenden and daughter, Dorothy, were down from Lincoln over Sunday, the guest of friends.

A little boy has arrived at the home of H. W. Hein and wife, and he has been given a hearty welcome.

J. M. Stitzel returned home Tuesday from Oklahoma where he has been working for some time.

Ruth Bennett, who has been attending school here the past year, returned to her home in Greenleaf, Kan., last Friday.

Harry Mitchell, who has been visiting in this locality, left Monday for Milwaukee, Wis., where he has secured a position as cook on a steamer on the great lakes.

Mmes. Nora Cummings and Jerry Fenton, and Mamie Fenton went to Haddam, Kan., last Friday to see Nora A. Fenton, formerly of this place, before her departure for Concordia to join the sisters of St. Joseph as a novice. Mamie Fenton returned home Monday accompanied by her father who spent a couple of days here.

Barada.

Everett Scott of Falls City was in town Thursday.

Elmer Butler was a pleasant caller here Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Frazier was on the sick list last week.

Meta Kuker of St. Deroin was shopping in town Saturday.

J. C. Shulenberg has been suffering with a sore hand.

Willie McGowen was a guest of his sister, Mrs. DeLos Spickler Sunday.

Joseph Haller of Grand Island was a guest of his uncle, Henry Gerdes.

Mrs. James Holsworth is making a short stay at the home of Ed Ege this week.

Mattie Ankrom was a guest of Mrs. Herbert Stokes a few days last week.

Ed Spitznagle came out from Falls City the last of the week with Mr. Lively.

Mrs. Chas. Wileman and daughters of the Forest Hill fruit farm were in town Saturday.

Wm. Spickler drove over from Shubert Saturday to look after business interests.

W. W. Leekins of Falls City was a pleasant caller in this vicinity the last of the week.

Martin Gehling and Max Herling of Falls City made a business trip to our village Sunday.

Joseph Watton and wife drove down from their home near Shubert to visit with the folks at home.

A number of young people from this vicinity attended a dance Saturday evening at the beautiful home of Dan Kelly southwest of town. They "tripped the light fantastic toe" until a late hour when all departed for their respective homes, having had a delightful time.

Shubert.

Grandma McDaniels is in a very critical condition.

R. M. Gillan of Auburn was in our city last Tuesday.

Mrs. M. H. Taylor spent a few days in Auburn last week.

Prof. Carr returned from Peru Monday.

Cora Henderson is visiting with relatives at Peru.

OUR CUSTOMERS ARE WELL PLEASED

When customers are pleased it is the best advertisement—ask about us and you will find out. Wall Paper is our Specialty. We also carry Paints, Oils, Etc.

White's Wall Paper Store Falls City, Nebraska

Chas. Pond and wife entertained relatives during the past week.

Fred Colglazier, Alf Jones and Oscar Pond spent Tuesday fishing.

Mrs. L. C. Walker visited her daughter Saturday and Sunday at this place.

Attie Morrow entertained her friend, Dick Atterberry of St. Joe over Sunday.

We understand that J. N. Colglazier and wife will spend the summer in Indiana.

Bert Ballard and family are again residents of Shubert, he being put here as section boss.

Jim Chandler and family left the first of the week for Nemaha where they will make their future home.

Mattie Cook Ellis of Peru delivered the class address for the graduates at this place last Friday evening.

Solon Cooper and wife entertained their daughter, Mrs. Barker and children from Nemaha over Sunday.

The funeral of John Morris, who was killed in an elevator at St. Louis, was held at Prairie Union Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Yackley of Nemaha attended commencement Friday night at this place and visited with friends over Sunday.

Ella Berg left this week for Nebraska City where she will make her home with Rev. J. T. Smith and wife for some time.

Rural Route No. 3.

Henry Scheitel while out working in the field last Tuesday had the good fortune to discover a den of 6 young wolves.

Wm. Hahn built several bridges across the slough on Route 5 Saturday.

John and Charles Weinert shipped a car load of sheep to Kansas City Wednesday.

August Dorste was in Falls City Tuesday.

Herman Dorste is among the sick.

F. C. Oberst and Edward Durfee have purchased them a dipping tank and will begin dipping their stock.

We notice along the route several fine pieces of small grain especially rye. It is all headed out and is a good height.

Mark Durfee and Frank Smith were fishing in the Missouri river and report a big catch.

The carrier on this route and Route 1, have sold between 5 and 6 thousand sweet potato plants to the farmers the past week.

Thomas Davis had the misfortune to run the end of a bicycle pump through the palm of his hand one day this week.

We Will Engrave Your Graduation Gifts

and give them that individuality possessed by no other gifts. Our engraving is all fine hand-work—nothing like it in town. We engrave any name, date or inscription, and make no charge for it, but we only engrave articles purchased at our store. Our stock is as complete and varied as any and we are prepared to meet your wants—whether it is a watch or a trinket—at prices that fit your pocket book.

A. E. JAQUET

"THE OLD RELIABLE"

J E W E L E R

McNall's GROCERY

Fancy and Staple Groceries.

Fruit in Season.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Free City Delivery
Phone 40.

Storage for Household and Other Goods.